

Individual Memberships

Explore the Many Benefits of Okemo Valley TV Memberships

Training & Certification in All Areas of Production

- Members are eligible to be trained and certified in a wide variety of media skills.
- Members must become certified in each area before signing out or using applicable Okemo Valley TV (OVTV) equipment.

Access to Equipment, Studio, and Channel Time

- Members, once certified, may use and sign out any piece of OVTV equipment on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Produce Programming for TV & Web

- Member-produced programming is given priority on the TV Schedules. Members may request timeslots based on the content of the programs.
 - Training is also provided in the area of new media use and distribution.
- Technical Assistance with All Areas of Production

Join Us Today & Support OVTV: www.okemovalley.tv/become-a-member

- Members can access technical assistance through all literature and staff resources available at OVTV.
- Staff is always available during OVTV operating hours to lend technical assistance to members.

Technical Assistance in All Areas of Production

- Members have complete access to technical assistance through all literature and staff resources available at OVTV.
- Staff is available at all times during Okemo Valley TV operating hours to lend technical assistance to members.

Access to Official Training Classes & Workshops

- Members have the first choice for all media production courses offered through OVTV.
- Additional professional training may become available through outside sources. Members will have access as it becomes available to OVTV.

Promotion of Programming

- Programming will be publicized on the “Program Schedule” section of OVTV’s website.
- Producers may request additional publicity for special programs and the launching of series programs.

